Commonwealth Institute of Funeral Service provides equal educational opportunities without regard to race, creed, color, sex, age, handicap or national ethnic origin.

To apply for admissions students are encouraged to submit all application materials no less than two months prior to anticipated enrollment. To apply for admission:

1. Complete an application for admission/record of previous education and training and forward it to Commonwealth Institute. Enclose the $50 application fee. This $50 fee will be refunded to the potential student if notification in writing is received by Commonwealth Institute within 72 hours (three business days) after this agreement has been signed by the prospective student resulting in voiding their application for admission.
2. Contact your high school for official transcript; or state agency granting your G.E.D. to obtain official certificate & transcript; EACH vocational or technical school; college and university previously attended and request an official transcript be sent directly to Commonwealth Institute if you plan to transfer credit.
3. If your name has been changed from that appearing on your birth certificate, submit a copy of the legal document showing every name change. (i.e. marriage license, divorce decree, etc.)
4. VA students must submit their DD-214 and service transcripts 2 months prior to enrollment.
5. If you have been convicted of a felony of any kind, or misdemeanor relating to Funeral Service see catalog.

See admissions section in catalogue for additional information.

After Commonwealth Institute has received the completed application, fee, and all required supporting documents, the admission committee reviews the application and will notify the applicant of its decision. Once a student has been accepted for admission an acceptance letter will be sent to the student. Students are invited to visit Commonwealth Institute to tour facilities, meet with the registrar, and discuss their admission status at any time. Once the application fee has been received, financial aid information will be sent to the prospective student.
